

MICHELLE GRIFFIN HAIRDRESSES AT THE OK! MAGAZINE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Michelle Griffin Hair Salon* was the salon chosen to style the stars at the official 2008 OK! Magazine Christmas party! This exclusive event was attended by a whole host of stars and media moguls.

Michelle and two of her Art Team members were requested to be hairdressers and make-up artists to the stars by celebrity agent Jonathan Lipman. The team were on hand to apply hair extensions, style hair and apply make up to the guests including X-Factor's Ruth Lorenzo, model Alicia Douvall, and some of the Big Brother personalities.

The evening was a huge success; Michelle used various types of hair extensions by different methods including her own hot bonding system, Rapture, and Hairaisers wefts. She was also able to educate the guests on which method would suit them best and has already had numerous appointments booked up with her in the salon.

Michelle Griffin is the artistic influence behind the unique Hair Extension Salon and Academy that also offers an array of precision hairdressing, services and products. The salon is commercial with an edge, in the affluent Barnt Green – the frequent of many celebrities.

The salon's strength lies with hair extensions, offering everything from hair length, colour placement and hair volume, to unique hair counselling for hair loss. Aside from creating hair extensions using an array of different methods, the Michelle Griffin team works with top product companies, and offers a range of services including traditional hairdressing, beauty treatments, and specialist hair care and guidance. Michelle and her team were delighted to be able to represent British hairdressing at the stylish event and hope to be able to offer their services at other events throughout 2009.

Good Salon Guide home