CELEBRITY BASH

The team at Michelle Griffin Hair Salon were the official 2008 Hairdresser and Make-Up Artists for this year's OK! Magazine Christmas Party, which was attended by a host of stars.

Michelle and two of her Art Team members were on hand to apply hair extensions, style hair and apply make up to the guests including X-Factor's Ruth Lorenzo and Austin Drage.

Michelle used various types of hair extensions with different methods and was able to educate the guests on which method would suit them best securing numerous appointments with her in the salon.
